WEDNESDAY JANUARY 23, 1901.

SOMETHING NOT USUAL.

It may be gratifying to the people when they learn that Nevada's legislature now convened in Carson and organized for business is the first legislature that has been organized in the State for over thirty years without the aid of a boss, which is a result, it is fair to presume of the presence of independence and intelligence.

A continued order of business for an average life time which has come in a sudden manner to a close is unusual. The absence of a boss may have a meaning that cannot be explained by causes present in Nevada, but whatever or wherever the cause may be, it is a change that will give relief to the people and for that reason it for no other it will be welcome information to every upright man in the State.

The people should take a just pride in saying that a Nevada legislature has been organized without dictation from a boss who exercised the authority of an autocrat and ruler—the regime of former times was oppressive to the people, as its purpose was to secure legislation that was not always to their interest, but was in direct opposition to liberty and their rights. The JOURNAL has no words of censure or recantations to make respecting the past, as no good could come from pursuing the memory of the dead.

Should old conditions be brought to life by a revival of a boss system it will be in time to make it known when it makes an appearance. The legislature should be just to every interest there is represented in the State that is entitled to the protection of its laws. There are no places along the line of its duty where it should get off to get even.

Should there be any personal grievances entertained by any member in either branch of the legislature or by a friend of any member, the law-making power should not be used to redress personal matters. To secure the general good of all interests which includes protection to all business departments represented in the State should be the beginning and end of legislation.

The State has no enemies to punish, and a true sense of justice should direct, as far as it is possible, the work of the law making power, which will exclude bills containing threats against industries and interests for blackmail purposes. Bills that clearly belonged to the class mentioned have been too often introduced in legislatures in Nevada, but it could not be otherwise, as a majority of those who were returned to the legislature were taken from a class who used their position to secure all there "was in it" in money, or in other valuable consideration.

Toward the close of a session, when it became necessary to secure additional remuneration for service rendered for a valuable consideration, a "thieving bill," as it was often termed, was introduced against a railroad company or some corporate interest in the State to make the interest attacked "puzzle" the required measure.

The object the JOURNAL has in view when reciting these incidents is to direct attention to methods pursued by majorities in former legislatures in the State. These methods were a result of boss rule in the law-making body. The boss secured by manipulation of politics in the several counties in the State a majority he could use for his purposes, who were not as provident in their expenses as more discreet men usually are, and more money became necessary to provide additional means while the legislature was in session, and a thieving bill was introduced which secured the means to defeat it, and not anything more was heard of the bill.

It is believed from statements made and indications given that a majority of the body are honorable men, who will do the best that can be done to make a clean record for the legislative body convened to make laws in 1901. The legislature at its opening, being in a position to dispense with the services of a boss, there is no sufficient reason in opposition to its remaining independent during the session, which should be received by the people as an omen that the necessary thieving bill of other legislatures at the close of the session will be dispensed with as unnecessary.

The people should believe from its opening work that they have a legislature that will do its duty by protecting their interests and the interests of each industry in the State, individual and corporate. To do justice will,

The Lyon county smelter now employs twenty eight men.

Sierra Nevada stock has been assessed 15 cents per share.

Twelve men are at work at the McConnell mine in Lyon county.

The Ludwig mine has four ten-horse teams hauling ore to Wabuska.

The Bluestone Company will shortly erect a large smelter near the mine.

The Tuscarora Miners' Union has ninety-eight members in good standing.

White Pine county script is now redeemed for 90 cents on the dollar.

This is a higher rate than for many years.

Statistics of John Sherman.

To his and to the credit of John Sherman a moment's reflection instinctively methodical and unerring in his judgment. He saw to it that the public moneys were not squandered or used for dishonest purposes. A claim for $1,000,000 was once brought to him for his signature. It had been regularly allowed, but it was illegal, and he refused to sign.

"It has been allowed," insisted the claimant's attorney, "and you must sign it."

"I will not," repeated Mr. Sherman, and he did not. He would have resigned, and he afterward confided to a friend, had it been required of him sooner that even seem to sanction a fraud. Neither would he permit irregularities. The chief of a bureau one day came to him for an order to pay for some machinery.

"Has it been advertised?" asked the secretary.

"No," said the chief, "but there are only two places where it can be made, and we are accustomed to get their bids and contract with the lowest."

"But," said the secretary, "the law says it must be advertised."

"At least this may pass, for it is made, and we need it."

"I cannot help that. The law says it must be advertised, and advertised it must be." And advertised it was at a very large saving to the government.—Saturday Evening Post.

A Lesson in Seamanship.

Captain Hans Miron, who lost his life at his post of duty on the burning Sault at Hoboken, was fond of telling of his early introduction to the stern realities of his chosen career. He had but just come on board the schooner where as cabin boy he was to serve his apprenticeship to the sea and was still staring about him with boyish interest and inquisitiveness when the skipper approached and ordered him to assist in washing down the deck.

He put down his bundle and started awkwardly to do so, when a second order, accompanied by emphatic expletives, was given him to take off his shoes and stockings. He was perfectly willing to oblige, but at home he had not been permitted to wet his feet.

"No," he answered innocently, with an engaging smile, "I should not mind, but my mother does not allow it."

The skipper was a rough old sea dog who did not appreciate obedience unless it was rendered to himself, and his reply was a stunning blow that flung the boy across the deck. "But after that," Captain Miron would say, with a great laugh and not a shadow of resentment, "I knew who was captain of that schooner, and it was not my mother."

Four Kings and a Joker.

At the time of Colonel Cody's advent into the capital of Germany the old Emperor William was entertaining these three kings of smaller Germanic powers. The royal gentlemen were very much interested in the Buffalo Bill exhibitions, and Colonel Cody was the recipient of many favors from the emperor himself. One feature of the performance was the exhibition of the antiquated Deadwood coach containing passengers who are attacked by Indians and finally rescued by cowboys.

The Kaiser asked to be allowed to ride in this vehicle with his royal guests and to participate in this interesting experience. The request was of course granted, and when the coach was furiously assailed by howling Indians its inmates were as usual saved by gallant cowboys.

After it was over and as the royal party were descending from the coach the emperor remarked:

"Colonel Cody, I do not suppose this is the first time you have ever held four kings."

"No, your majesty," returned the quick witted scout, "but this is the first time I ever held four kings and a royal joker at the same time!"—San Francisco Evening Post.

LONDON, Jan. 22—Queen Victoria died at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, at 6:30 tonight, surrounded by her children and grandchildren.

The news was posted on London bulletin boards shortly before 7 o'clock and the great bell of St. Paul's church tolled out the sad tidings to waiting London.

All theaters and music halls were closed at once and will not reopen until after the funeral.

The end of the aged queen was preceded by a period of consciousness, during which she saw all the members of the family.

NEVADA LEGISLATORS TRUE TO THEIR PLEDGES

The Lottery Monster Must Look Elsewhere for a Habitation---Utter Rout of the Gang.

CARSON, Jan. 22. There has been a complete collapse of the lottery boom. Nothing but a vile odor is left. To-day the Assembly, by unanimous vote, Ormsby county excepted, passed a resolution repudiating this skin game project and burned their bridges, so far as reconsideration of this measure is concerned.

To-morrow the Senate will fall in line and by a vote, estimated at 9 to 6, bury the lottery monster so deep it can never hope to see the light of day again.

ASSEMBLY.

The lower house convened at 11, with Speaker Van Duzer in the chair. As soon as the journal was read a very important resolution was presented by Mr. Wilson of Elko. In substance it put the question upon the lottery bill, as far as the Assembly is concerned.

Mr. Allen of Churchill moved to table the resolution, but the motion was lost by a vote of 24 to 6.

Mr. Wilson and Mr. Jacobs of Washoe spoke for the resolution. Messrs. Platt and Sweeney of Ormsby and Paul of White Pine made speeches against it.

The resolution carried by the overwhelming vote of 27 to 8. Those voting nay were Platt, Sweeney and Heidrich, all of Ormsby.

Mr. Allen sent a legislative appropriation bill through in the remarkably short time of twelve minutes. It passed under suspension of the rules. The bill appropriated $35,000.

The Assembly then adjourned until 11 o'clock to-morrow morning.

THE RESOLUTION.

Following is the text of the anti-lottery resolution:

WHEREAS, A public rumor, which has reached the national legislative halls, exists to the effect that the twentieth session of the legislature of the State of Nevada intends passing an amendment to the constitution of the State establishing a lottery in the State, whereby the State shall participate in the spoils plundered from the people;

WHEREAS, Such rumor is unjust to our people, injurious to the State and a direct reflection upon our honor, and upon the fidelity of ourselves to the pledges taken by us as set forth in the platforms of all the political parties in the State;

WHEREAS, Such rumor is calculated greatly to injure the chances of pending legislation in Congress of special interest to the State, and is further calculated to invite national action depriving Nevada of Statehood by furnishing a reason therefor;

WHEREAS, The present session of Congress will soon be adjourned, and it is necessary that the attitude of this legislature on the proposed constitutional amendment should be brought speedily before Congress, and

WHEREAS, We, as members of the Assembly are firmly opposed to the passage of any amendment to the constitution of this State, therefore be it

Resolved, That a joint committee of the legislature of the State of Nevada, to consist of two members from the Senate and three members from the Assembly, be appointed to draft a suitable memorial to Congress embodying the views of the present session of this legislature upon the proposed lottery amendment.

SENATE.

The Senate met at 11 o'clock, pursuant to adjournment, Lieutenant-Governor Judge presiding.

Roll call, prayer by the chaplain and reading of the journal, as usual.

Senator Livingston gave notice that he would at an early date introduce a bill to regulate foreign corporations, banking institutions and mining companies doing business in this State.

A message was received from the Governor transmitting his second biennial report.

The various standing committees not having been appointed, and no further immediate business being presented, the Senate adjourned until 11 to-morrow.

NOTES.

Hon. Lem Allen cast his vote on the side of the people yesterday.

To the indefatigable efforts of Judge Corlier and Will E. Sharon is largely due the overwhelming majority for the Wilson resolution.

Again the JOURNAL was on the winning side and the right one.

Mr. Townsend of Humboldt is the only member absent. He is kept away by illness.

The Nevada legislature is composed of upright, honorable men, who are true to their pledges and prefer clear consciences to blocks of lottery stock. They have shown themselves, almost to a man, worthy the honor the State has bestowed upon them. Nevada will remember them and show her gratitude for their excellent services.

LITTLE LOCAL BREVITIES

Items of Street and Town too Brief for Separate Heads.

The grand jury will be in session to-day.

O. M. Harris died at the county hospital of pneumonia yesterday.

There is an exhibit at the Co-op store some views of the celebrated Santa Rosa Sewer farm, which is an interesting subject to all Renoites.

Look for the ad of the Novelty Dry Goods store and see what is offered you as money makers for this week. The time to buy is now, before this sale is closed.

Buttler lots in Reno are in demand, and sales occur frequently. There will be a sound of the hammer and saw all over Reno the coming spring and summer.

Ranch for Sale.

Containing 465 acres, all under fence; 400 acres improved, with good orchard. House of seven rooms, fine stone milk house; large barn, 60x80 feet, stable room for 12 head horses. Feed corral for over 300 head cattle, water in each corral. Cuts from 500 to 600 tons hay. Located six miles south of Reno, on Virginia road. Title perfect. This being a large ranch, I can subdivide and sell any portion of it. Small payment down and balance can remain from one to twenty years at only 5 per cent interest. For terms see owner on the place.

PETER DALTON.
(or O. S. Martin.)

"Shooting the Chutes."

The attraction at the opera house Wednesday evening will be the plate-glass comedians, Murry & Mack, in their latest musical extravaganza "Shooting the Chutes" which means much to the average theatre goer. The annual appearance of these funny men is always hailed with more than passing interest, as their coming means an event of unusual jollity.

General Assembly.

General assembly will take place this afternoon in the gymnasium. An address will be delivered by E. T. Oelgen of Chicago. Everybody invited.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Gossip About the Migrating Public as They Come and Go.

T. F. Tanbert is very sick with the grip.

Ed. White returned from Carson yesterday.

A. A. Hibbard returned yesterday from California.

D. E. Morton returned from the south last night.

Judge Corlier came down from the State capital last evening.

Miss Cecil Lion has gone to Carson to fill a legislative position.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Williams of Madeline passed through Reno on the way to Onico, where they will spend the winter.

The Directory Revised.

Several names were omitted in the JOURNAL'S 1901 directory of Reno. Since it was issued a number of citizens have changed addresses, and a number of new people have arrived since the canvass was made.

A request is hereby made that people whose names do not appear or where there is an error in address, report the same to the JOURNAL office without delay. A supplement will be printed and distributed free to all holders of directories.

The revised addition will be on sale at Harry Davis' store and at this office for $1.25 each. Secure a volume in time as there remain but 100 more directories.

Dolph on the Right Side.

Now that the lottery amendment is a thing of the past, it might be just as well to let the public know how some people really stood on the proposition. Dolph Shans is spoken of as one of the lottery promoters, but, to the certain knowledge of the JOURNAL, he spent the last three days in Carson lobbying against the bill.

Business Change.

Messrs. Murphy and Sullivan have purchased W. Carter's saloon on Virginia street. Robert Riley is chief purveyor of appetizers. There is music by an orchestra every evening.

W. R. W., Reno—If the local assayers and smelters are unable to find anything in your rock you should send it to San Francisco, Denver or Boston where there are experts who can get fifty ounces in silver out of a T bone and an independent fortune in gold out of a petrified man.

I. B. A. J., Monkey Island—The Darwinian theory as interpreted by local capitalists and not volcanic or riparian action is responsible for your tight little island.

B. T. Y., Huffaker—Send a piece that has not been carried in the same pocket with tobacco. Like all genuine experts the Rock Sharp tests rock by tasting it. The tobacco interferes as the juice makes a poor flux for a wet assay.

A. R., Reno—The lamp you sent is a good piece of rock. Properly pulverized and molded it would make good fire brick. If you will have on hand a large supply next election time when the reverberatory politicians begin to distribute hot air you will find it in gold and silver which assay tests do not disclose.

Work of Board of Pardons.

The Board of Pardons transacted the following business in addition to previously published report:

B. A. Harris, Elko county, murder in the second degree; sentenced to life in 1891. Postponed.

Raffes Pippin, sent from Lincoln Co., to serve one year for larceny. Pardon granted.

O. O. Robinson, from Ormsby county for five years from 1898; robbery. Refused.

Willie Dee Jim, Indian Humboldt county, murder in second degree. Sentenced to life in 1895. Pardoned.

The application of J. Wright for restoration of credits taken from him on account of prison break was refused.

Joe Sue, Indian, Humboldt county 7 years from 1898, for assault with intent to kill. Pardoned.

A New Camp.

There are already a number of buildings erected on Main street at Tonopah besides over a dozen tents. Lothrop and Davis have erected a frame store building and have quite a stock of goods on hand and are doing quite a good business, as there are about forty men in camp already. There are a number of other buildings on the way to camp now.—Courier.

Anti-Lottery Resolution.

By unanimous vote the members of the First Congregational church of this city passed a resolution last Sunday urging the legislature to defeat the lottery amendment bill.

The Place to Buy.

Frank Campbell has eastern cream cheese, ripe and green olives in bulk, salmon bellies and mackerel. Also bulk oysters on Wednesdays. Give him a call.

Fresh candy every day at Mackay's.

MARCH OF PROGRESS

Accession to Fire Department—Public Library for This City.

The last obstacle in the way of an effective fire department for this city was done away with yesterday. Chief Hodgkinson was authorized by the town board to purchase a modern hose wagon. Heretofore the engine has invariably arrived at fires five minutes before the lagging hose reel.

A petition signed by a majority of the tax-payers of this city, was presented to the board. It requests the establishment of a free public library in Reno. Messrs. Norcross, Bray and Cheney addressed the board in the interest of this worthy cause. It was decided to lay the matter over until the next meeting.

The JOURNAL urges favorable consideration of the petition. In this city there is no public place, except saloons, where are reading tables supplied with newspapers and magazines. It is a lack that has been often unfavorably commented upon by visitors.

Midsummer Night's Dream.

The exquisite melody with which Mendelssohn translated the immortal Shakespeare's "A Midsummer Night's Dream" into music, which is to be given with the drama at the opera house next Saturday by the Louis James and Kathryn Kidder combination, promises to treat of the most delightful character to all music lovers. With the beautiful stage pictures to illustrate its grandeur it will be doubly delicious.

Castles in the Air need not be "pipe dreams," or mere phantasms, if your tobacco and cigars are of good brands. Nothing visionary about the quality and real worth of the tobacco we supply for pipes and cigars. It's high grade, and well worth the price we ask. Here, for instance, is the Carl Dander cigar, at five cents each, $4 a hundred; All the best brands of smoking tobacco.
